Re: United States v. Ronell Sweat, Docket No. 24-Cr-195 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

SO ORDERED:

Paul G. Gardephe

Paul G. Gardephe, U.S.D.J.

Dated: Feb 26, 2025

This letter motion is submitted to request a 30 day adjournment of sentencing on behalf of the defendant, Ronell Sweat. Sentencing in the above-referenced matter is currently scheduled for March 10, 2025, at 3:00 p.m. However, a 30 day adjournment is sought in order to provide defense counsel adequate additional time to draft and file a sentencing submission on behalf of Ronell Sweat. This is defense counsel's first application for an adjournment of sentencing in this matter, and the request is necessitated by defense counsel's recent schedule.¹

A.U.S.A. Courtney Heavey was informed of defense counsel's intention to file this motion and has indicated that there is no objection on behalf of the government.

Respectfully submitted,

Anthony L. Ricco
Anthony L. Ricco, Esq.

¹ Until two days ago, I was an attorney of record in the criminal matter of United States v. Sean Combs, 24-cr-542 (AS), before the Hon. Arun Subramanian, which involved a very substantial amount of pretrial motion practice and litigation. Additionally, among other matters, I have been required to prepare for trial in New York State Supreme Court, where this morning I am scheduled to begin pretrial hearings in the matter of People v. Omar Bailey, New York County Indictment No. 70563-24/002.
